

Opposite Gender Staffing:

Men working with girls,
Women working with boys

Critical Issues

How to reduce and avoid potential pitfalls of opposite gender staffing.

Training Focus:

- Understanding the needs and behaviors of opposite gender clients
- Recognizing potential strengths and drawbacks of opposite gender staffing
- Interactive “learning lab” for safe discussion of real-case scenarios
- Modeling safe and non-exploitative relationships
- Increase confidence and understanding of associated issues

Tuesday, March 30, 2010

9 a.m. - 3:30 p.m.

Registration begins at 8:30 a.m.

Location:

Men as Peacemakers

205 W. 2nd St., #15

Duluth, MN 55802

The Trainers

Katya Gordon, Amicus Trainer on Gender and Restorative Practices

Mark Gordon, Amicus Trainer on adolescent programming and restorative practices

Matt Johnson, MSW, St. Louis County juvenile case manager. Former Amicus restorative justice program counselor for state commit girls

Appropriate For:

- Probation personnel, juvenile justice professionals
- Social workers, school personnel, non-profits serving youth

Registration:

$50 Training Fee
Includes Lunch

To register, contact Marissa Steen at marissa@amicususa.org or 612-348-8570