

Amicus Training Academy Presents: It's All About the Relationship

...forming safe, healthy relationships as the first step in helping adolescents achieve goals and function in society

Coming this summer to the Twin Cities Metro Area and to Southern Minnesota

After the successful session offered on May 19 in Duluth, Amicus is taking this innovative and practical training across the state!

Training Focus:

- recognizing gender differences in relationship building
- understanding the impact of trauma
- importance of strength-based restorative approaches

Appropriate for:

- probation personnel, juvenile justice professionals
- social workers, school personnel, non-profits serving youth.

The training will be interactive and include skill development for working with clients

Contact Marissa at marissa@amicususa.org or 612-348-8570 to register.

The Trainers

Katya Gordon, Amicus Trainer on Gender and Restorative Practices

Sara Heinzen (MA, LMFT), Clinical Director for The Center for Grief, Loss and Transition

Jennifer Baker Jones
Amicus Youth and Mental Health Services Director

Bridget Sanders
Women and Girls Services Program Coordinator

Registration:
$40 Training Fee
Includes Lunch (payment in cash or check at the training.)

Watch for registration details coming soon at the Amicus website:
www.amicususa.org